Creative AI

How does AI shape the future of design and how can designers shape the design process using AI? As the discourse around AI is using creativity as a proof for its actual existence, we want to explore what AI can do in the field of design.

Friday 13th Sept. 11:30 at Kesselhaus

Practicing Ethics

The ethics of design are particularly important when designing interfaces since they form the connection between people and technology. It seems to be important that technology is not perceived as an actor on its own, but as a collaborator.

Friday 13th Sept. 11:30 at Zeichensaal

Probing Change

Can we probe a different way to view familiar problems? The projects in this slot turn a well-known situation into a new one by altering the context or the experience.

Saturday 14th Sept. 10:30 at Kesselhaus

Redefining Perception

Perception is not limited to the senses we possess, technology enables us to enhance our natural perception towards multiple experiences.

Saturday 14th Sept. 10:30 at Zeichensaal

Educating Ourselves

How can we design small devices and interactions that enable us to change small daily behavior and that enhance self-awareness?

Saturday 14th Sept. 13:30 at Kesselhaus

Empowering Human Bodies

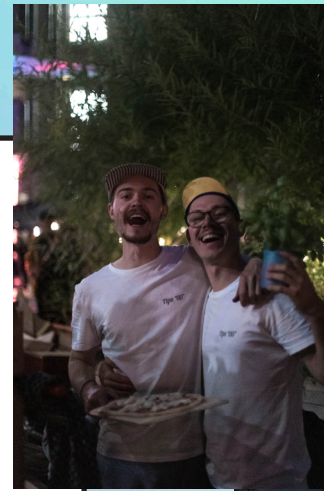

Our body sometimes needs additional empowerment to function. The papers presented in this slot are not expounding this as a problem, but as a opportunity.

Saturday 14th Sept. 13:30 at Zeichensaal

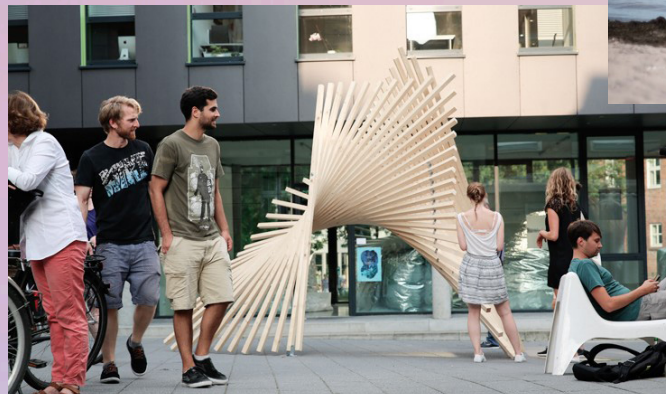

KIEL

MUTHESIUS ACADEMY OF FINE ARTS AND DESIGN

Welcome to the smallest and most northern art academy in Germany. Muthesius Academy for Arts and Design in Kiel. A vivid place with a history of 112 years and our place where we passionately design desirable futures. 680 students in fine arts, spacial strategies, communication design and industrial design make this place a special one. A place we want to share with you! As your SIdER'19 hosts we are the interface design program BA/MA of the industrial design department supported by our friends from other departments. We will not only welcome you at our campus but also bring you to a scenic party spot at the sea and if you want to a boat trip on our fjord!
